Quand je suis né, je buvais le lait de ma maman. Maintenant, je sais trouver ma propre nourriture.

J'aime grignoter
les trèfles, l'herbe
et les pissenlits.

Et si le fermier ne fait pas attention, je vais prendre une feuille de laitue!
